

Prabakaran returns to the podium in Shanghai

8th September, 2018 – Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia, Shanghai

Kumar Prabakaran scored a fine podium finish in the LB Cup Class of the Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia race at Shanghai on Saturday, finishing thirteenth overall.

Friday for the Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia drivers included a test session and two free practice sessions, both of which were disrupted by heavy rain. Prabakaran was third fastest in the LB Cup class in the first session and second fastest in the second. Saturday morning qualifying was dry and Prabakaran was fifth fastest in class. In the race he passed Walls and benefited from Murrioni's retirement to finish third, joyfully claiming his second podium finish of the season. Prabakaran followed up his excellent result on Saturday with another points scoring finish on Sunday and now heads to the final round at Jerez lying fifth in the Championship.
