

PRESS RELEASE: 12th April 2021

VSR heads to Monza for Super Trofeo season opener

This weekend VSR's 2021 season will get underway at Monza which hosts the first round of the European Lamborghini Super Trofeo Championship. Sospiri's Forlì-based team will field three Huracáns in the double-header event.

The team's Pro class entry will be driven by Mexico's Michael Dorrbecker and Mattia Michelotto from Italy. In Pro-Am the reigning Champions Karol Basz and Andrzej Lewandowski from Poland return for another season with VSR after dominating the category in 2020. Malaysia's Kumar Prabakaran will get his first taste of European racing, competing in the LB Cup class.

The Monza event kicks off with free practice on Friday 16th April followed by qualifying on Saturday morning. Both races will be shown live on Lamborghini Squadra Corse's You Tube channel:

Race 1	Saturday, 1600 cet
Race 2	Sunday, 1145 cet

- ENDS -