2026 Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia

VSR returns to Asia with new Mipox Corporation partnership

Reigning European Champions VSR set to field Todd Kingsford and Chris Van Der Drift in Mipox-backed Pro-Am entry

Vincenzo Sospiri Racing (VSR) today announced its highly anticipated return to Asian motorsport, confirming an entry into the 2026 Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia Championship. The campaign marks the beginning of a significant multi-year cooperation with Mipox Corporation, who will serve as the primary sponsor for the team's Pro-Am entry which will be driven by Kingsford and Van Der Drift, with further backing from Feynlab.

Based in Forlì, Italy, and led by former World Champion Vincenzo Sospiri, VSR enters the 2026 season as the reigning European Lamborghini Super Trofeo and Italian GT champions. The team's return to Asia signals a strategic expansion of its championship-winning program which will include running the new Lamborghini Temerario GT3 in Asia in 2027.

The Mipox-sponsored Lamborghini Huracán Super Trofeo Evo II will compete in the Pro-Am category in Super Trofeo Asia this year and will feature a formidable driver lineup, pairing Australian Todd Kingsford with New Zealander Chris Van Der Drift. The Feynlab-sponsored duo return to VSR following a standout performance at the 2025 Lamborghini Super Trofeo World Finals in Misano. In their debut with the team, Kingsford and Van Der Drift showcased their pace, narrowly missing out on the Pro-Am World Title - a performance they will look to build upon as they tackle the full Asian season.

"We are delighted to return to the Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia Championship and to begin this long-term partnership with Mipox Corporation," said Vincenzo Sospiri. "Todd and Chris proved their speed and professionalism during the World Finals in Misano last year, and we are confident that together with Mipox, we have the right package to fight for the title starting at Sepang."

"I am deeply honored to announce our strategic entry into the Asian market through this partnership with VSR and the iconic Lamborghini brand." said Jun Watanabe, CEO of Mipox Corporation. "In elite motorsports, where victory is measured in thousandths of a second, absolute precision and reliability are essential. This ethos perfectly mirrors Mipox's dedication to mastering our core 'Coating, Slitting, and Polishing' technologies. This initiative represents more than just brand exposure. It is a symbol of Mipox's unwavering resolve to contribute to the further development of the automotive industry, and our sincere commitment to supporting and growing alongside the extraordinary culture of motorsports. Together with VSR, we look forward to setting new standards of excellence and passion on circuits across Asia."

The 2026 season kicks off in April at the Sepang International Circuit in Malaysia, the first stop in a calendar that will see VSR and Mipox compete across the continent's most iconic racing venues.
