European Lamborghini Super Trofeo Championship

2024 Champions Randazzo and Tribaudini to defend Am title
Levet and Putera team up in VSR Pro car

There will be two VSR liveried Lamborghinis on the European Super Trofeo grid for the 2025 season, which gets underway next month with a double-header event at Paul Ricard in France.

Piero Randazzo and Stephane Tribaudini remain with the team, defending the Am title the Italian-French duo won in 2024 after taking six wins in the European Championship. The team's Pro entry will be raced by Frenchman Paul Levet, starting his second season in Super Trofeo, and series debutant Adam Putera from Malaysia.

Vincenzo Sospiri (Team Principal): This year will be our eleventh season competing in Super Trofeo, during that time we have won twelve titles and helped numerous drivers progress to GT3. I'm really looking forward to seeing our cars back on track at Paul Ricard. I know Piero and Stephane will be super-competitive once again and I'm confident that the Pro car will be in the mix at the front.

Paul Levet: I'd like to thank VSR for the incredible opportunity to race with them in 2025. I can't wait to wear my new colours for this season. The level is extremely high in Super Trofeo and for sure we are facing a big challenge but we have been working hard to be well-prepared. I'm convinced that the team's experience and professionalism will enable me to develop as a driver and grow as a person and I'm counting the days until the first race!
